John 6:35

Introduction

The story we live in is the story we live out.

In our fast-paced and power-obsessed world, we're surrounded by narratives that compete for our affections. But, as followers of Jesus, we believe that his unfolding story is the only one that leads to true life. Through the daily practice of reading Scripture, we seek to encounter Jesus and root our lives in his Word.

We've been given the gift of community to help build this rhythm into our lives. So whether you're new to the Bible or you've read it cover-to-cover many times, you're invited to join us in the BREAD practice this year: setting aside time to read and reflect on a passage of Scripture each day. As we journey through the same passages as a wider family, we hope to encourage each other and learn how to wholeheartedly follow the way of Jesus together.

You can use this resource at any time of day, but it has been designed with the morning in mind. Before any notifications or headlines get hold of our attention, we want to breathe in the truth of what God says over us, letting God's voice be the most formative one in our lives. Rather than eating the bread of anxious toil (as the Psalmist wrote), we want to eat the bread that truly satisfies.

So let's open up Scripture together, anchor ourselves in it, and devote our days to God. And let's hold on to hope that we'll be changed, challenged and transformed as we live in and live out the story of God.

How to Use This Book

Daily Bible Reading Plan

In these pages, you will find a daily Bible reading plan organised around the church calendar — an annual cycle of seasons and days observed by the global, historic church crafted to remember Jesus' life, death, and resurrection.

The order of daily readings is based on the Morning Prayer passages in the Common Worship Lectionary: a shared way of reading Scripture used by roughly 2 billion Christians around the world.

How much should I read?

The suggested BREAD reading is the highlighted New Testament passage. If you're new to the Bible or the daily reading practice, then start here! If you would like to go deeper, we've also included a Psalm and an Old Testament passage, which you can use for additional reflection.

PSALM	OLD TESTAMENT	NEW TESTAMENT

Why do some days have fewer readings?

The Sunday readings only include a Psalm. This is to create space to worship through the Psalms, on a day when many choose to gather with their church communities and engage with God's word there.

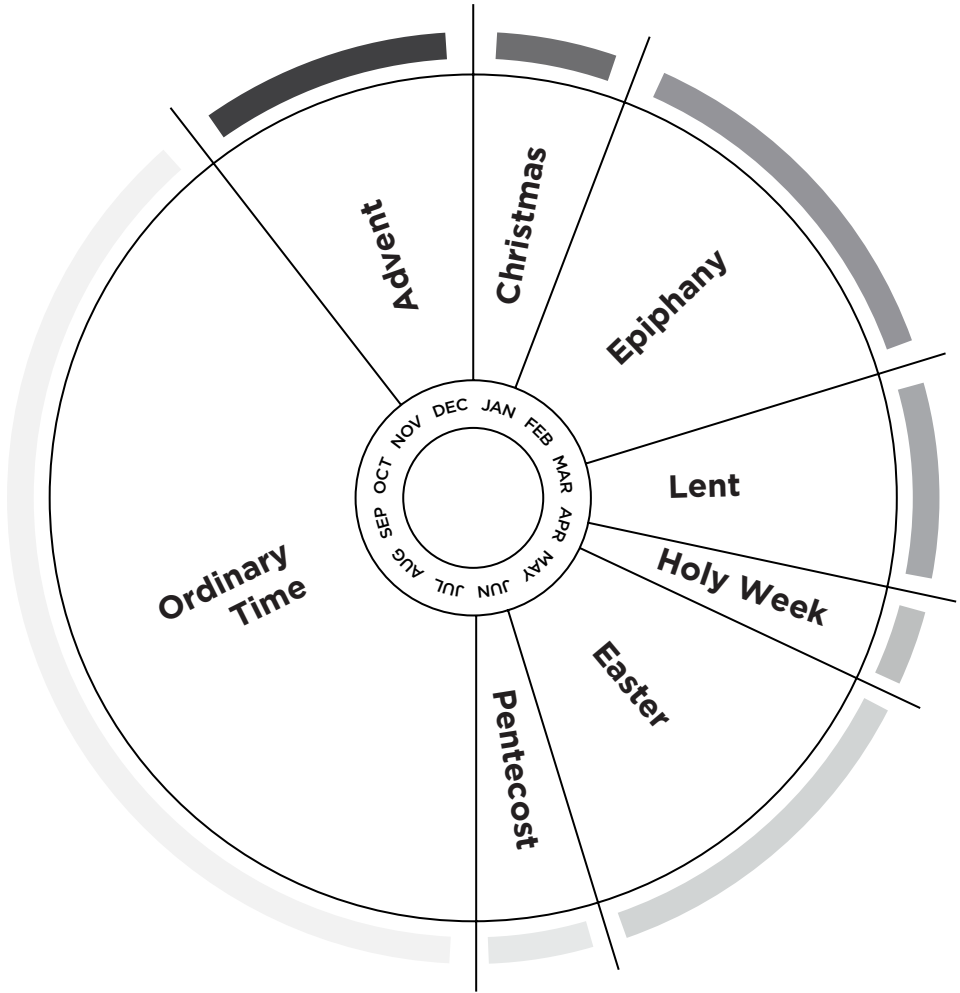

The church calendar includes many festivals and feast days to commemorate key figures and moments in the Bible. On certain key days, we've chosen to include the specific readings associated with these celebrations, where you'll see a calendar icon like this:

What am I reading about?

The Bible can be daunting sometimes, and it's often helpful to get additional context. We recommend watching the corresponding BibleProject video on YouTube when you come across a new or unfamiliar book of the Bible.

The Daily BREAD Practice

This book will help you pray, meditate, and journal through the Scriptures using a rhythm called BREAD, which is a modern take on lectio divina, an ancient and time-tested method of meeting with God in the pages of the Bible. Simply spend time each day allowing the prompts below to guide your time:

Be still

Find a place where you can encounter God, ask him to fill the space and take a minute in stillness. Fix your eyes on Jesus and invite the Holy Spirit to guide your time.

Read

Read through the passages for the day. Look for one verse that stands out or interests you. Write out that verse in the 'read' section.

Encounter

Meditate on what God highlighted to you in the passage by journaling through questions such as: What might God want me to know about himself, myself, or others? Is God revealing a lie or truth he wants me to notice and respond to? What else might God be saying to me?

Apply

Now turn your focus outward. Think about how you might apply this to your day and write down how you're going to try and live this out.

Devote

Finally, close by writing a simple prayer of devotion to God. Ask that God would fill you afresh and commit your day to him.

BE STILL _____

READ We love because he first loved us. Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen.

ENCOUNTER Love isn't just a feeling or something that we as humans initiate, but it's a reflection of God's nature within us. Before we could make a single choice about how we live our lives, he already loved us. So if we claim to love God, our actions toward others must mirror that love, even when it's difficult.

APPLY What would it look like to start every interaction today from a place of knowing God's deep love for me? It's easier when everything seems to be going well, but I also want to love those around me when things are frustrating or when there's disagreement. I want to live today in a way that my workmates and my friends get a glimpse of the love of Jesus.

DEVOTE Lord, help me to see others through your eyes and respond with the same love and grace you've given me.

Epiphany & The Season After

06.01.25–4.03.25

Every year on 6th of January, the Church observes Epiphany, a day set aside to celebrate God's arrival among humanity. Epiphany derives from a Greek word that refers to the coming of the dawn or the appearance of a deity. In the West, this day historically centres around the long-awaited arrival of God in human flesh, Jesus, and the visit paid to him by the Magi—wealthy pilgrims from foreign lands—who brought gifts to honour the newly born Messiah. In the East, this day historically centres around the first Trinitarian story in the gospels: the baptism of Jesus, when the Father opens the heavens to reveal the Son's true identity, and the Spirit descends on him in the form of a dove.

As we enter the season after Epiphany, we are invited to reflect on the presence and promise of God to us through the person of Jesus.

Lent

5.03.25 - 19.04.25

Lent begins 40 days before Easter (not counting Sundays) on what some traditions call Ash Wednesday. The 40 days of Lent correspond to the 40 days that Jesus fasted in the wilderness (see Matthew 4v1-11), often observed by one's own 40-day practice of fasting or abstinence—typically from particular foods, entertainment, or comforts. The six Sundays of Lent, however, are feast days—days in which one's fast is replaced with feasts, small moments of anticipation for the coming resurrection.

As we remember Jesus' journey to the cross, Lent is a time to remember our own humanity, both in our physical bodies and in the brokenness of our flesh. It is a time to reflect on the suffering and pain of our world, to lean into the groaning of all creation, learning to find Jesus in the wilderness moments of our lives and recognising again our need for His grace.

Throughout this season, you will encounter and explore the results of living in a fallen world, and walk with Jesus in his journey to the cross in Holy Week where we see the depths of God's love for us displayed on the cross.

Easter

20.04.25 - 7.06.25

Having just walked through Holy Week, we've witnessed Jesus' journey to the cross, the rejection he faced and the suffering he endured. However, the story doesn't end in the silence of Holy Saturday. On Easter Sunday, we revel in Jesus' triumphant defeat of death itself, making way for our resurrection through his own. The empty grave points to what has been made possible through Jesus: that death has been swallowed up in victory (1 Cor. 15:54).

Over the next few weeks, we'll reflect upon the Good News of Easter and all that Jesus has made possible. As we read on, let's consider what it means to live as resurrection people who have been brought out of darkness and into light. Our hope is that we would stand in awe again at the beauty of the gospel story, and learn what it means to be people who live in light of his victory over the grave.

Pentecost

8.06.25

50 days after Easter we reach another celebration in the church calendar: Pentecost. Pentecost Sunday is a key moment in the church when we remember those first disciples in Acts 2, who gathered together in Jerusalem shortly after Jesus' ascension into heaven. As these followers waited together in an upper room, they were filled with the Spirit of God and went out into the streets proclaiming the Good News of Jesus. That first outpouring of the Spirit resulted in 3000 people coming to faith, and the church was born.

As we reflect on that day, we remember that the same Holy Spirit who filled those first disciples is the same Holy Spirit who fills us now. The events of Pentecost mean that as we navigate our way through the highs and lows of life we are not alone; as the Apostle Paul tells us in Romans 8:11, the same Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead lives in us. On Pentecost Sunday we celebrate this incredible truth and remind ourselves of the church's call to be people who carry the presence of God to the world around us.

Ordinary Time

9.06.25-29.11.25

The longest season in the church calendar, Ordinary Time makes up the days between Pentecost and the beginning of Advent. “Ordinary,” here, refers to “ordinal” numbers, the way by which these weeks are traditionally counted (i.e. First Week of Ordinary Time, Second Week of Ordinary Time, etc.).

While the seasons of Easter and Pentecost invited us to reflect on the resurrection and ascension of Jesus along with the descent and gift of the Holy Spirit, Ordinary Time is an extended period to reflect on our own ongoing conversion—our journey to be with Jesus, to become like Jesus, and to do what Jesus did.

Advent & Christmas

30.11.25-06.01.26

Advent begins in darkness; it starts with an aching anticipation with all of creation for the coming dawn. Derived from a Latin word meaning “coming” or “arrival,” Advent is the season in which we await the arrival of God in Jesus. There is a wonder and mystery that underlies this season in which hope is grown, and yet in Advent we emulate the ancients’ longing for the arrival of God in human form as we wait for God to return.

Our waiting in Advent is fulfilled at Christmas, when we celebrate the birth of Jesus, also referred to as Emmanuel (or God with Us). Christmas is the beautiful celebration that our God broke into human history, becoming himself a fragile refugee infant, in order to save us from the world, the flesh, and the devil.
